

The Sign

The New Era - August 1980

Moderately

The proph-et spoke, the peo-ple heard, but few be-lieved his
- threat was made that saints would die, un-less the sign shone

5

gra-cious word. The wick-ed scoffed, the right-eous mourned, be-cause the words of in the sky. The time was set, the law was made. The wick-ed laughed; the 9 a little faster

life were scorned. f A sign was giv-en to show the day our Sav-ior right-eous prayed. And then from heav-en His voice was heard: "To-mor-row

Music: Brent Neal Jorgensen Words: Thomas Irving Wright

15

1. 2.

Je - sus would come their way. The to the world." The day had come, come I un-

22

the swords were drawn, then passed the night - with - out a dawn. The 28 Slowly, with expression

gift of God was not de-nied, the faith of saints was just - ti - fied.

mf